An Evening of Lessons and Carols-A Christmas Celebration December 18th at 7PM

Please join the St. Philip community for an evening of Lessons and Carols; a service incorporating scripture readings and an adaptation of the narration and music from "The Perfect Christmas" by Mark Cabaniss, music by Stan Pethel. The instrumentalists of St. Philip Parish will be joined by members of the Eastern Festival Symphony Orchestra conducted by Zachary Israel Nobile Kampler. We will be taking up a free will offering to help the orchestra continue their fine work. The service will take place on Sunday, December 18, 2005 at 7:00PM at St. Philip Church. Admission is free and refreshments will be served.

Although this program will last only an hour, it will include music selected to entertain all ages, scripture readings especially picked for the season and vocals including the Saint Philip adult and children's choir. All participants will stay for the refreshment after the program to answer questions. The variety and talent offered, makes this a program that can't be missed.

For more information, please call Maria O'Kelly at 203-846-8054.
